ATTENTION, GSUers . . . The GSU Library Control System (LCS) is now in operation in the University Library. The new computerized circulation system makes it no longer necessary for the borrower to fill out circulation cards for each item checked out. Faculty, staff and students must have a current, valid GSU I.D. card to check out items on the new system, which is expected to increase resource sharing among cooperating institutions. Above, Provost Curt McCray and Jean Singer, Library Director, observe a demonstration of the system by Library staff member Delores Pryor (left).

THE TENTH COMMENCEMENT . . . of Governors State University will be Saturday and Sunday, June 7-8, in the University Gymnasium, honoring graduation candidates for August 1979, December 1979, and April 1980. The two recipients of honorary degrees for 1980 are: Jewel Lafontant, Special Assistant Attorney General for Illinois and Harry Mark Petrakis, well known novelist and short story writer.

IBHE APPROVES MBA DEGREE . . . Governors State University has been granted approval to award the Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree, becoming the only State-supported university in northeastern Illinois to offer this important professional degree. At its monthly meeting held May 6th on the GSU campus, the Illinois Board of Higher Education (IBHE) formally approved the recommendation of the Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities (BOG), the governing body of Governors State and four other universities. It culminates several years of development by Dr. Curtis McCray, Provost and Academic Vice President, Dr. Robert Milam, Dean of the College of Business and Public Administration, and other University faculty and administrative officials.

THE FIRST ANNUAL PRESIDENT'S CONCERT . . . will feature performances by the Governors State University String Quartet and two guest artists --Dmitry Paperno, concert pianist affiliated with Mosconcert which is the major concert bureau in the USSR; and Joseph Guastafeste, principal string bassist for the Chicago Symphony Orchestra since 1961. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 21, in GSU's Music Recital Hall. It will include works by Haydn, Mozart and Schubert. Tickets are $100 per couple and can be obtained from the GSU Foundation by calling 534-5368.

REMINDER TO FACULTY . . . The last day for ordering academic attire for the Commencement Ceremony is May 13, through the Bookstore.

IN OBSERVANCE . . . of Memorial Day, Monday, May 26, will be a holiday at GSU.

THE 9th ANNUAL . . . Junior College Jazz Festival at GSU is being held May 9-10, with community colleges from the Greater Chicago area competing for top honors.

"HOLD ME" . . . a series of sketches, skits and vignettes by Jules Feiffer, humorist and satirist, will be presented by the GSU Theatre at 8 p.m., May 16-17, and May 23-24. The cast of five actors will portray a variety of roles based on Feiffer's well-known cartoon characters. The theme is the plight of today's city dwellers and the hang-ups, personality difficulties, identity crises and assorted mishaps which beset them. Admission is $3 for the general public and $2 for GSU faculty, staff, Alumni Association members and senior citizens. GSU students are admitted free. The May 17th performance has been sold out to the GSU Alumni Association.

PUBLISHED . . . "A Bibliography of Resources on the Subject of Death for Children Junior High and Younger" by Lucille Kerr and Mimi Kaplan (both of UL) will be announced in the May issue of Resources in Education, the ERIC abstract journal. It has been given the document number ED179876. Kerr recently learned that her paper on "Materials Centers: A Dream of Their Future" has also been accepted by ERIC.

SNEAK A PEEK . . . at the "Little Black Sambo" collection and display in the exhibit case outside the Library entrance. The display on "Bias Publishing" belongs to Mimi Kaplan (UL) and includes a copy of her article on "Little Black Sambo Collectibles," which is printed in the April 30, 1980 issue of The Antique Trader Weekly. The transformation of the black person's image in print has been underway for many years, but the tempo has increased markedly since 1970.

PARKING DECALS . . . are now on sale at the Bookstore and the Cashier's Office. The cost of a decal for the Spring/Summer Trimester is $8. Expired decals should be replaced now to avoid receiving a citation.

1980 PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN . . . pamphlets, mailings needed by HUGH RANK (CAS) x2423.

NOMINATING PETITIONS . . . for Faculty Senate positions are available in the University Governance Office. Elections will be held the third week in May and the new members will be seated in September, 1980. Only Bargaining Unit members may run. Nominating petitions for positions on the Council of Faculties are also available. NOTE: ALL petitions must be returned to the University Governance Office no later than Friday, May 16, at 5 p.m.

GSUings . . . SUZANNE PRESCOTT (HLD) receiving appointment to the National Committee of the American Psychological Association for the study of scientific bias in research on women. The committee is currently drafting guidelines for the elimination of sexism in psychological research . . . SANDRA WHITAKER (HLD) participating in a mental health workshop at the Suburban Hispanic Social Service Conference at the Harvey Holiday Inn, May 15 . . . GEORGE MICHEL (HLD) receiving invitation to become a researcher for a research and reference project on private colleges and universities. Michel will work on data collection for three noted private institutions in Chicago --School of the Art Institute, St. Xavier College, and the American Conservatory of Music. The reference work will be published as part of the Greenwood Encyclopedia of American Institutions . . . BETHE HAGENS (CAS) addressing the day-long forum sponsored by ACTION's National Center for Service-Learning (NCSL) as the keynote speaker. The forum, "Conserving Energy: What School, Students and Communities Can Do Together," was held in St. Paul, May 2. Hagens' presentation included a slide show illustrating her work with student energy projects serving low income neighborhoods in the Chicago area . . . TULSI SARAL (HLD) participating as a workshop leader and program presenter at the International Communication Association's annual conference in Acapulco, Mexico, May 17-24. He will also be teaching a short course entitled "Designing a Course in Intercultural Communication" and presenting a paper on "Indian Perspectives on Human Communication." Participating on the panel of past chairpersons of the Intercultural Communication Division, Saral will be among those reviewing the past and present accomplishments in the field and recommending future directions.

IN RECOGNITION . . . of May as Better Speech and Hearing Month, the GSU Chapter of the National Student Speech and Hearing Association will host an Open House, Tuesday, May 20, 7-9:30 p.m., in the Communication Disorders Laboratory on the second floor of A Wing. Clinical, educational and professional equipment and materials will be available for viewing. For information, contact Jay Lubinsky, x2370.
